

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The City Council for the City of Iowa Park, Texas will conduct a public hearing on Monday, September 26, 2011 at 7:00 p.m. to receive public input towards and the review, discussion and consideration of the City's proposed boating access project to be located on the southwest end of the North Fork Buffalo Creek Reservoir; said proposed boating access facility will be located in a floodplain area and could have environmental impacts on said floodplain area. Interested parties will be given an opportunity to provide comments concerning the City's proposed project. All meetings are open to the public.